DEDICATION

The class of 1952 dedicates this edition of Entre Nous to the elementary school building, newly erected for the benefit of the coming school children. We wish to take this opportunity to thank the far-seeing citizens of this community and the school board for the wonderful privileges their action in bringing this building to completion will furnish for our young children of the town and surrounding territory, for all the coming generations.

CLASS COLORS: Maroon and Gold.

FAREWELL TO YOU: OF '52

As we sadly roam the corridors
Our last week at school, we find
We are reminded even now
Of the memories left behind.
Of our friends and teachers who,
Though, without co-operation
Worked for four years to help prepare
Us for future occupation.
With tear filled eyes we all recall
Our childish pranks and then
We start to laugh, but remember they are gone
And our eyes fill once again
It's so very hard in words to say
"Farewell" to things you loved so
And your classmates part at the door
But plan to meet on the road to success
With fond memories evermore.

JANET EBERLY
Salutatorian

MYRA SCHALLER
Salutatorian

EDWARD ADAMS

It's nice to talk, it's nice to smile;
It's nice to be serious once in a while.

DONNA BROWN

You couldn't call Donna an old farm hand;
She's the drum major of our band.

RICHARD BLACK

A tall fellow of a jolly sort,
Who we all agree is a dandy sport.

BEVERLY CARDAMAN

Bev is still wearing Glenn's ring;
To us it looks like the real thing.

RUTH BRASWELL

Successful and thorough in all her work,
Never a duty does she shirk.

PAT COOK

Carefree and full of fun,
Her laughter's heard by everyone.

BILL BRIDEWESER

Life is a joke and all things show it,
I thought so once; but now I know it.

ROY DIEKMAN

If you don't open your mouth,
At least you can't get your foot into it.

JANET EVERLY

Janet is full of pep and vitality;
She possesses ideal personality.

GENE EMERICK

Peppy, witty, gobs of fun;
Known and liked by everyone.

BILL EVANS

I'm the sheik of Araby,
And all the ladies worship me.

GLENN FORTNER

Here's a guy who really gets places;
As an athlete, he's higher than aces.

DALE FOX

Dale, a lad from a farm,
Never did anyone any harm.

MILDRED HANNA

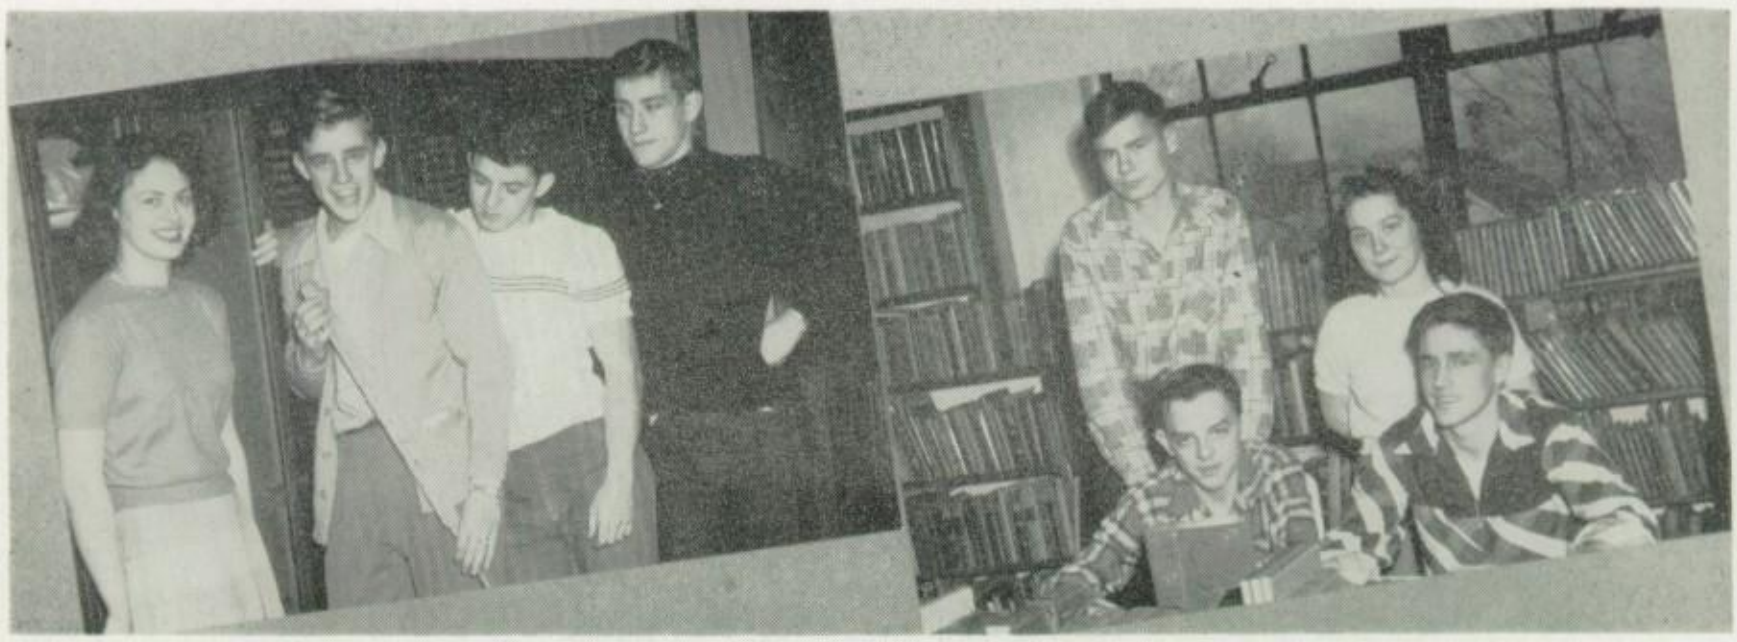
She's not so tall,
But liked by all.

TREVOR HUTH

Happy as a clown, jolly as an elf;
You'll laugh at him in spite of yourself.

GILBERT JOHNSON

Cares — cares — Please go away;
Come back some other day.



WEBSTER LONAS

He has a way all his own
To make his every work shown.

JOHN PAUL MUSKOFF

Known by all for his faithful car;
Like it — we know — J. P. is sure to go far.

DON MARCHAND

It's a bird, it's a plane, it's an atom bomb!
No, it's just a car, with a driver named Don.

RUTH NOFSINGER

Ruthie on the typewriter is a whiz;
She makes the keyboard fairly sizz.

DAMON MASSIE

If telling jokes were a crime,
This lad would now be serving time.

JUNE REAMER

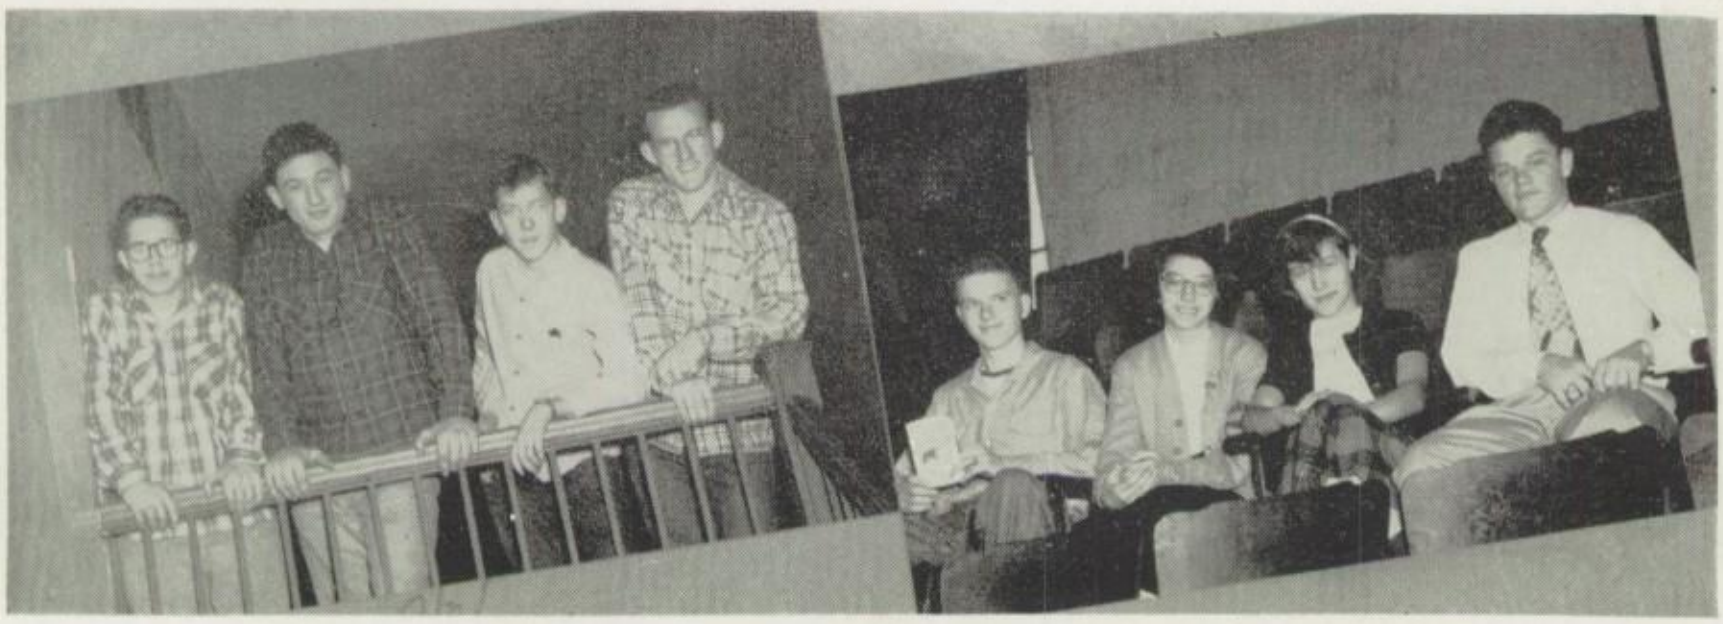
June, the artist on our annual staff;
She's always ready for a good laugh.

CARL ROUSE

Carl sells gas in his spare time,
But you'll never cheat him out of a dime.

LEO MUMMERTZ

Leo, in any baseball game,
Never fails to bring us fame.



DONNA RUMBERGER

The harder they come, the harder they fall;
And never a study bothers her at all.

MYRA SCHALLER

A clever mind under curly hair.

PAUL SHREFFLER

Bussie's mischievous smile
Is on his face all the while.

LEROY STRUBEL

Leroy has no anchor yet,
But some girl he's sure to get.

JEANNE THOMPSON

Smiling eyes and light blonde hair
Always make a pleasant pair.

ANDREW TORMASI

Andy is a hustler coming and going;
Just where he will land there is no knowing.

ZOLA WHITFIELD

A very nice girl, thoughtful and polite;
Ever so eager to do what is right.

RUBY WINKHART

Although details she may shun;
She still has a lot of fun.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of '52, being sound in mind and body, hereby declare our last will and testament in the presence of all teachers and students here and elsewhere.

I, Eddie Adams, will and bequeath my love for teasing girls to Robert Bigler and Ronald Engleman.
I, Richard Black, will and bequeath my ability to drive carefully to Sonny Stutz.
I, Ruth Braswell, will and bequeath my Journalistic ability to Sally Rose.
I, Billy Brideweser, will and bequeath my love for girls to my brother, Johnny Brideweser.
I, Donna Brown, will and bequeath my Massillon dream man to Alma Fischer.
I, Beverly Cardaman, will and bequeath my love for Navarre boys to Shirley Stanford.
I, Patsy Cook, will and bequeath my natural long blonde hair to Luann Gaut.
I, Roy Diekmann, will and bequeath my shyness with the girls to Paul Widder.
I, Janet Eberly, will and bequeath my love for city life to Mary Rentsch.
I, Gene Emerick, will and bequeath my girl friends to Jim Bartholomew.
I, Billy Evans, will and bequeath my loving ability to Gary Jogerst.
I, Glenn Fortner, will and bequeath my faithfulness to one girl to Roger Leighley.
I, Dale Fox, will and bequeath my farming ability to Wesley Anderson.
I, Mildred Hanna, will and bequeath my man hating ability to Nancy Stoetzer and Dora Etter.
I, Trevor Huth, will and bequeath my wise cracks to Monica Stahl.
I, Gilbert Johnson, will and bequeath my ways to Larry Grunwald.
I, Webster Lonas, will and bequeath my ability to mind my own business to John Purser.
I, Don Marchand, will and bequeath my love for majorettes to Dick Hay.
I, Damon Massie, will and bequeath my michievousness to Bobby and Billy Lind.
I, Leo Mummertz, will and bequeath my masculine charm to John Miller.
I, John Paul Muskoff, will and bequeath my short hair cut to Frank Emmert.
I, Ruth Nofsinger, will and bequeath my quietness and reserved ways to Margaret Hogue.
I, June Reamer, will and bequeath my timely sneeze in Democracy to Cleo Nofsinger.
I, Carl Rouse, will and bequeath my right to be a Senior to Bobby Agnes.
I, Donna Rumberger, will and bequeath my ability not to worry about assignments to Shirley Nofsinger.
I, Myra Schaller, will and bequeath my ability to study to Helen Snyder.
I, Paul Shreffler, will and bequeath my ability to be hen-pecked to Jack Stucky.
I, Leroy Strubel, will and bequeath my trumpet playing to Richard Pinard.
I, Jeanne Thompson, will and bequeath my love for country life to Nona Herrick.
I, Andrew Tormasi, will and bequeath my mustache to Gene Feucht.
I, Zola Whitfield, will and bequeath my ability not to crack my gum to Barbara Girt.
I, Ruby Winkhart, will and bequeath my business-like attitude to Carol Greenwalt.
I, Billy Brideweser, will and bequeath my piano playing to Charles Stanko.
I, Trevor Huth, will and bequeath my clean shaven face to Hubert Gentzler.
I, John Muskoff, will and bequeath my picture drawing to Fred Russell.

We, Janet Eberly and Jeanne Thompson, will and bequeath our ability to gad around school without permission slips to the girls of the Junior Class.

We, the Class of '52, pause to relinquish our seats in Assembly to the Class of '53. We leave the Sophomores the task of looking after the Freshmen, and lest they forget, we remind them that Freshmen must be handled with care. To the Freshmen, we bequeath the faculty, and, Freshmen, remember the teachers' years on this earth are numbered.

CLASS HISTORY

It had been a long tiring journey. We decided to stop and rest on a nearby rock and were just starting to get our breath when we were startled by a voice behind us. Turning, we saw a kindly old man in whose eyes we could plainly see the dancing light of youth. He announced himself as St. Peter and asked if he could help us in any way. We said that we were on our way to the Pearly Gates. "Oh! You're from earth, then," was his reply. "Well, I have something here which will interest you." He sat down between us and leafed through a large book he had been carrying, until he came to a section marked Navarre. On back a few pages we saw Class of 1952 in Gold and Maroon letters. As our eyes traveled over the page, the memory of our happy school days with our classmates, flashed before us in a merry floood.

Early one September morning in 1948, a bustling group of freshmen entered their new room and promptly began fighting over the seats—but only on a friendly basis. We had many wonderful times together, some of which were a Hallow'en party in our freshman year, a skating party in our Sophomore year, a bake sale, the Junior Jip Joint, class plays, and the greatest of all, the Junior--Senior Proms, in our junior and senior years.

The class officers we had during those four years include: Paul Shreffler, Janet Eberly, Bill Evans, Zola Whitfield, Eddie Adams, Donna Brown, Gilbert Johnson, Beryl Murphy, and Dale Johnson.

Forty-one pupils started together on this happy road through high school, but only thirty-two reached the end of the road at Navarre. Some of our classmates had moved away to finish their journey somewhere else, but we are proud to say that a few new ones completed theirs here.

As we handed the book to St. Peter, he smiled and said, "I know you will want to come with me now and have a regular class reunion inside the Pearly Gates." Then as if he were reading our thoughts, "Yes, I was a bit worried about a few, but now with you two, they are all accounted for." With these last words, he took his pen and wrote across the bottom of the page,

"All accounted for."

THE SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Place: Station WHEE (the nation's largest TV station)

Time: 17 minutes before midnight.

This is Zola Whitfield and Ruthie Braswell, bringing to a close our first show on television, which we have dedicated to Miss Lowe and Mr. Holshoy, because we feel that without their tireless efforts as our instructors in high school, we and many others could never have attained our goals. Now, until next week, we shall say good-night all.

Good evening, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. A. and all bordering countries, this is Gene Emerick, bringing you fifteen minutes of the world's latest news. Webster Lonas has made history tonight. He has just completed an impossible feat. He has brought about peace negotiations for the U. N. in the barbarious jungles of Central Africa. Bill Evans, a senator from Ohio, is responsible for starting the bill that was passed this afternoon, giving all young men within draft age the right to vote. Leo Mummertz, in his atomic propelled airplane, has set a new speed record. Top place in the Kentucky Derby was captured today by Damon Massie on his horse, Blue Boy. Don Marchand, the flagpole sitter, has finally come down after securing higher wages for school teachers. Bussie Shreffler, a deep sea diver, has uncovered valuable historical remains in the Mediterranean Sea. Glenn Fortner has won the title, "All-American." Andrew Tormasi has discovered a new type of animal life in Tibet, while he and Leroy Struble were on a hunting expedition there. Last night Carl Rouse broke all previous records when he completed his swim from France to England. The time: 15 hours and 27 minutes. Richard Black, the famous lawyer, obtained proof enough to win his case in one of the biggest law suits in Hollywood history. Trevor Huth, a clown in the Barnum and Baily circus, discovered the stolen bank money in a would-be cowboy's ten gallon hat; this matter he promptly reported to police chief Eddie Adams. This brings to a close today's most up-to-the-minute news commentary, Gene Emerick reporting.

After staying to hear the news, we went to Schaller's Drive-In for a midnight snack. There, over a cup of coffee with Myra we talked over old times and what had become of our classmates. Donna Rumberger and Millie Hanna are married and living with their officer husbands in Hawaii where Donna is teaching the Hula in Billy Brideweser's school of dancing. Billy also has an All-Hawaiian Girl Orchestra. Donna Brown and Pat Cook, fashion designers, have a very prosperous firm in New York City. Janet Eberly is their head model. She has also appeared on the covers of some of our leading magazines. Ruth Nofsinger does most of the firm's secretarial work and Ruby Winkhart manages the advertising department. Roy Diekman owns a fine fruit tree farm in the middle West. The most surprising of all was when we heard that Jeanne Thompson and Bev Cardaman are now touring Europe. It seems that they heard that Continental men are so dignified. John Paul Muskoff is still hopping freight trains back and forth to college. Gilbert Johnson is teaching driving with June Reamer as his star pupil. Dale Fox is now a mechanic in a large garage in Navarre.

Now our cast of old school mates is complete, and as the curtain falls, we turn the spotlight on Miss Lowe and Mr. Holshoy as they still endeavor with magnificent zeal, to guide other classes like ours over the bumps on the road to success.

The game was p ville.

All four clubs this weekend, two night and the othe night.

Jackson will ente at Louisville in the contests. Canal Ful Middlebranch, the le defe ing champion and Hi East

Clive to 250 Navarre football fans gathered in St. Clement's hall Wednesday evening to pay tribute to Navarre high school's 1951 grid team.

Joining with them was Coach Chuck Mather of Massillon's 1951 state championship Tiger football club who delivered the principal address at the affair which was sponsored by the Navarre Booster club.

Massillon also was represented on the program by Bob Smith and Bill Snyder who presented a comedy act.

Garnet L. Patterson, Navarre attorney, served as toastmaster for the program which followed dinner and which also was highlighted by introduction of members of this year's Ram team by Coach Fred Brideweser.

* * *

A CHAMPIONSHIP team, Mather told the Navarre gridders, must have boys who have a goal, who are willing to keep themselves in condition and accept advice as to who have a desire to win.

He pointed to desire as the most important factor.

"Any team can be ordinary," he said. "To be good you have got to excel."

He urged the Ram players to be conscious of the fact that the success of their season was dependent upon many other individuals and organizations including the school officials, their coach, the cheerleaders, the fans and their parents.

"Parents," he said, "are the two most important people in a boy's life. The training a boy receives at home is the key to his success."

Mather paid tribute to Coach Brideweser, pointing to him as a coach well versed in the fundamentals of football who knows what he is doing.

The speaker devoted a large part of his talk to humorous events on his first year as a football coach.

* * *

COACH BRIDEWESER was on hand to award varsity letters but they did not arrive in time for the banquet but he announced the following players and managers as having earned letters:

Co-Capts. Glenn Fortner, Gil Johnson and Don Marchand, three other seniors, John Muskoff, Bill Evans and Eddie Adams, nine juniors, Rog Leighley, Jack Slucky, Paul Widder, Jim Bartholomew, John Brideweser, Gary Jegerst, Dick Hay, Charles Stanka and Bob Bigler, four sophomores, Jerry Berlyoung, Ronnie Eccleston, Ed Garver and Ted Feucht, and two managers, John Miller and Jim Agnes.

Brideweser also introduced Jack Endres, who helped him coach the grid team, Leo Mummerts, who was the leading pitcher of the Navarre high baseball team which last spring advanced to the final game of the state Class B baseball tournament, and the school cheerleaders.

In his opening remarks Toastmaster Patterson referred to the banquet as a fine tribute to the community.

* * *

club, briefly extended thanks to the fans at the banquet and to all persons who cooperated with the club during the season.

Co-Capt. Marchand presented gifts to Coach Brideweser on behalf of the team. Rooters on behalf of the team was presented to Brideweser by Patterson.

Following the program a movie was shown by Coach Mather, the first quarter by breaking Willard Rooms loose for a 85-yard run. Bigler kicked the extra point.

In the second Gil Johnson shot a 40-yard pass to Glen Fortner who took the ball on his own 40 and went the rest of the way. The try for extra point was unsuccessful and Marlboro led by 7-6 at the end of the first half.

Early in the third the Rams drove from their own 35 to the Marlboro two-yard line from where Bill Evans plunged over. In that drive John Brideweser threw two passes to Fortner for 16 and 18 yards.

Later in the same period Brideweser intercepted a Marlboro pass on his own 40 and raced 60 yards to score the final touchdown. Fortner kicked the extra point. Both of the Navarre touchdowns were counters.

The Rams moved from their own 20 to the Marlboro end zone in the last minute of play but the play was called back and a penalty imposed. On other occasions the Rams moved deep into enemy territory but the ball once on the 2-yard line was held for downs.

Area Teams Take Games In B Loop

Jackson's Bears and Navarre's Rams opened play in the Stark county Class B school football league in auspicious manner Friday night, the Bears socked Minerva, 54-0, on their home field and the Rams beating Canton, 13-6, at East Canton.

A three-touchdown splurge in the fourth quarter highlighted impressive win of the Jackson club which lost its first two games to Class A opponents.

Navarre scored in all but first period in registering its second win in three starts.

* * *

THE SUPERIORITY of the western Stark clubs definitely is as great as the scores of the games indicate. Marlboro threatened to score against Jackson only as Navarre missed out on two touchdowns, one on a fumble in East Canton territory and the other on a penalty.

Recovery of a fumble on the Marlboro seven-yard line led Navarre's initial counter. After recovering the ball in the Marlboro end zone Back Carl Sarver, quarterback and halfback Eddie Adams each scored a touchdown, Adams to Strouble for the first touchdown and Skin to Adams for the extra points.

Guard Johnson scored the first touchdown of the game Jackson on a three fourth-quarter touchdown following a double galloping

Later Fullback Bill Evans raced 30 yards on a 30-yard end sweep for the touchdown less than eight minutes after the Marlboro goal Allen drove across for the extra points.

* * *

NAVARRE WENT 70 yards for its third counter, Evans carrying the last eight yards.

Later Eddie Garver, substitute halfback, raced 15 yards to the East Canton end zone after the play was called back and the Rams penalized.

A pass play good for 50 yards to the East Canton 20 only touchdown. The ball 20 yards to went the enable the whitewash.

14 to eight in the Rams of 10 passes completed

Mr. Hall: Your hair will be gray if it keeps on.
Mr. Wisard: If it only keep on, I don't care what color it becomes.

Pat: Dad, you are a lucky man!
Father: How is that?
Pat: You won't have to buy me any school books this year. I'm taking all of last year's work over again.

Mr. Miller: I'm going to give you this violin.
Bill Brideweser: An out-and-out gift?
Mr. Miller: Absolutely! No strings to it.

Mr. Bond: How did you make out with your school exams?

Trevor: Oh, just like Napoleon.
Mr. Bond: What do you mean?
Trevor: I went down in history.

Mr. Holshoy: Why are you late for school, Billy Lee?
Bill: Because there is a sign on the corner that says, "School Zone, Slow."

Ruth Braswell: Bert, your shirts are very loud.
Marchand: Yes but I intend to wear a muffler with them.

Bubby: Who was that peach I saw you with last night?
Gene: She's no peach, she's a grapefruit.
Bubby: Why grapefruit?
Gene: Well, I squeezed her and she hit me in the eye.

"Look here, Mrs. Charlesworth, I can write my name in the dust on this desk."
"My goodness, there's nothing like education, is there, Beverly?"

Judge: Ten dollars or ten days.
Bussie: I'll take the ten dollars, I can do more with it.

Wisard: Andy, who was Anne Boleyn?
Andy: Anne Boleyn was a flatiron.
Wsard: What on earth do you mean?
Andy: Well, it says here in the history book, "Henry, having disposed of Catherine, pressed his suit with Anne Boleyn."

Bridey: Who was Homer?
Leo: That's the guy Babe Ruth made famous.

Carl: The horn on your car must be broken.
Leroy: No, it's not broken—it's indifferent.
Carl: Indifferent, what do you mean?
Leroy: It just doesn't give a hoot.

He sipped the nectar from her lips, as
Under the moonlight they sat;
And he wondered if ever a man before,
Had drunk from a mug like that.

John Miller: Something seems wrong with this engine, perhaps we better stop.
Miss Lowe: Don't be silly, wait till we get off the main road.

Jean T.: How should I treat a guy who is forever saying, my lip stick is sticky?
Donna B.: Give him a paste in the mouth, honey."

When asked whether he liked to go to school Damon said, "Sure, and I like to come home, too. It's staying there between times that gets me."

Eddie Adams was sitting in school slouched down in his seat with his feet in the aisle. He was also chewing gum noisily. Wisard shouted: "Eddie! Take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in."

Miss Lowe visiting the Reamer Home and June answered the door:
"June, is your father home?"
"He ain't home."
"June, where's your grammar?"
"She's in the kitchen baking cookies."

Donna Brown: "Do you stir your coffee with your right or left hand?"
Miss Bremer: "I use my right hand."
Donna: "I use a spoon."

Mr. Hall: "Billy! You should have been here an hour ago."
Billy: "Why, what happened?"

Bubby: "I've had this car for years and never had a wreck."

VanHorn: "You mean you've had this wreck for years and never had a car."

Paul Muskoff: "No, son, I'm afraid I can't hire you. We can't use much help just now."
John Paul: "That's all right, Dad, I wouldn't be much help."
